

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The accident death rate in farming is second only to the mining and construction industries; and

WHEREAS, accidents cause a considerable economic loss when family bread winners are no longer able to function as farm manager-operators, and

WHEREAS, farm and ranch families should take readily available and necessary steps to prevent accidents by being exposed to a clear understanding of the nature of various problems and the action necessary to prevent accidents,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK FARRAR, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, do hereby call on the people of this state to observe the week beginning July 20, 1969 as-and urge all farm and ranch families, and those persons and groups serving or allied with agriculture, to use all possible means for minimizing accident losses at work, in homes, at recreation, and on the roadways.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this eleventh day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-nine.
